purpose

- The website is about books, its basically like an online library for many types of books like novel, comics, fables, quotes and many more as well as many more genres like actions, thriller and other. we also made this website for those who are lazy to go out or depends on modern situation where people mostly use or read somethings online more than real books. This website's main objective bring entertainment and interesting vibes in reading and understanding some perceptions of life.

Story Of Book-Tune

The inspiration behind Book-Tune was another website call webtoon but heavily based of mangadex , our motivation to create Book-Tune is that we want to make a website like webtoon but instead of just comics we have a bunch more books to choose from from studying books to novel to classic literature and many more. we added these other books because as student we found it very hard to find books we need for our studies so we created Book-Tune so that others student wont have such a difficult time finding books they need
